From the Administration

Dear Parents,

Thank you again for being patient as we continue to get through our RISE testing. We appreciate your efforts with students as they come to school having had a good breakfast and good sleep. It really makes a difference for teachers.

I was shown so much love this week on "Principal Day" from the community, staff, and students. I enjoy my job working with your kids and grateful to make a difference in their lives.

The PTA has been working hard at making this last month of school a fabulous one. Watch for information about Happy Day and Field Day. We are lucky to have a PTA that finds ways to enhance and involve every child in the school.

I neglected to thank Savannah Jensen and the student council for organizing "Cleaning of the Oaks" on Earth Day. It was fantastic! The student body worked hard in cleaning out the debris from the oaks. Thank you, parents who came and supported this project. Thank you, student council, for coming up with this idea. I think it would be a great tradition to carry on every year.

Have a great week!

If you have lost the book, you will need to pay $10. Money can be turned in at the office anytime. Reminders will be sent home to specific students with outstanding books the week of May 13. If a student does not return or pay for their missing book, they will not be able to attend field day.

Counselor's Corner – Career Week!

For the month of May, we will be focusing on College and Career awareness. It is never too early to start preparing and learning about the choices students can make after they graduate from high school. Some of the choices we will be encouraging students to be thinking about are: college, vocational schools, and the military. Students are currently preparing themselves for their future by attending school, completing assignments, learning responsibility, and learning how to work and interact with others in a positive manner. The habits they create today, will follow them throughout their life. By making and working on personal goals, students can prepare themselves for their future. We know that the more education and skills a person has, the more opportunities they have when it comes time to compete for a career and job. We encourage all students to be curious about the various jobs and careers available to them, and to seek what training and education is needed for those jobs. Then get excited about the future and soak in their current learning and experiences to shape them into becoming the best version of them they can be.

We will be having an exciting college and career week during May 20 -24, please refer to the flyer coming home on Monday for more info. Learning about college and careers is exciting and we are happy to be exploring these things with your students.
