From the Administration

Dear Parents,

Thank you, Mrs. Grover, for the many hours you dedicated to making the read-a-thon week successful. The activities were fun and exciting for all. We appreciate all that our PTA does to support our students. Thank you!!

I love this time of year because it is the beginning of baseball season. I love this sport. When players come back from their winter break, some come back in shape and others not so much. Those who haven't worked to keep their bodies in shape suffer and they must work harder to get ready for the season. The same is true in education. Today is the starting of a weekend. Do something educationally with your students. It is easy! Bake a cake with them, it teaches them about fractions, read a family story together, or go shopping and ask them what is 10% off the retail price. These are simple things, but it keeps your students minds in shape. Thanks for being great parents!!

Have a great weekend.

Hello Oak Hills,

It has been such a fun week. Thank you to Heather Grover and her volunteers for a great Read-a-thon!

Are you wanting more adult interaction? Are you wanting to make more friends? Come join in the fun of the PTA! Our next meeting will be March 6th at 11:30 in the Library.

It is about time for the musical performances. Did you get your tickets? Do you need tickets? Tickets are free. If you are in need of tickets, please let me know. You can email me at terralech@gmail.com and I can help you. There are shows every night the week of March 11-15 including a matinee performance on Friday at 3:30. Please come and watch our students shine!

A few things about the musical.

- Parking is limited at the school, please park at the church to the west of the school. The west doors will be open.

- Concessions! We do not charge for tickets, so please be generous with our concessions. We will be able to accept cash, check or credit card. Cash will be the best option.

- Fundraiser: Last year we were able to raise money to get new chairs for our school. This year we would like to help our school raise money for technology. We will have a place for you to donate towards a new iPad cart.

Counselor's Corner

We are focusing on Habit 5 "Seek to Understand, then to be Understood." One important part of this skill is to be an active listener. Sometimes we have BLOCKERS that interfere with our listening. Here are the blockers we talked about in my lesson this month:

1. Daydreaming - imagining other things and not being in the present moment
2. Filtering - only hearing what you want to hear
3. Rehearsing - thinking of what you want to say, while the other person is speaking
4. Judging - making observations about the speakers clothes, personality, tone, body language
5. Distractions - hunger, tiredness, noise, others talking, music, electronics

Be careful of these common blockers we all struggle with, when you notice you are doing one... name it and STOP it, and then get back on track to active listening. ☺

Read-A-Thon...

We had so much fun at our assembly with Tyler Whitesides. He is the brother of our very own music teacher, Molly Johnson. He is the author of the Janitors and Wishmakers series.

He made a special visit to our Kindergarteners and First Graders. They were able to learn what it is like to be an author and how much fun reading can be. The students enjoyed having him read to them in their classrooms.

The 2nd to 6th graders were able to attend an assembly with Mr. Whitesides. I have never seen our student body enjoy a presenter so much. He entertained them with his percussion skills on a garbage can and bucket drum set. He introduced the students to his new series Wishmakers and related that some wishes are really goals that we can all work towards. Wishes really can come true!

I hope that Tyler Whitesides made a lasting impression on your student, whether it was getting them excited about music, reading, writing or following their dreams.

Thank you Molly, Max and Mae Johnson for sharing your brother and uncle with us, it is an experience that we will all remember. If you are interested in getting his books and meeting him yourself, he will be at the Barnes and Noble in Bountiful on March 11th at 6:00.

THANK YOU, from our Student Council...

Thank you to all those who came and bought valentines and supported Oak Hills student council. This event gives them insights in marketing, money management, and keeping track of inventory. They sold out of all of their products and had a great time fulfilling everyone's orders. Thank you for the time and patience that was shown to them.
